Army officials reports gas leak on Presidio of Monterey

PRESIDIO OF MONTEREY, Calif. – Presidio of Monterey officials confirmed the evacuation of at least five buildings on post because of a gas leak.

The installation remains open, but the area around the leak is closed to all but emergency traffic.

Emergency personnel have responded to the scene. No one has been reported injured.

At this time Presidio of Monterey officials are investigating the leak.

As more information becomes available, it will be sent to media outlets and posted to the Presidio's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/USAGPresidio and Twitter: @POMGarrison.
