Presidio of Monterey returns to normal operations

PRESIDIO OF MONTEREY, Calif. – PG&E staff has fixed a gas leak on the Presidio of Monterey and students and faculty have returned to their buildings.

The leak was initially reported about 7:30 a.m. Emergency personnel responded to the scene.

Prior to allowing the resumption of occupation, Presidio of Monterey Fire Department staff walked through the buildings and confirmed they are ready for resumption of business.

During the event, the installation remained open, but the area around the leak was closed to all but emergency traffic.

One service member reported to the medical clinic for evaluation.

As more information becomes available, it will be sent to media outlets and posted to the Presidio's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/USAGPresidio and Twitter: @POMGarrison.
