DLIFLC Commandant runs with troops and local ROTC

PRESIDIO OF MONTEREY, Calif. - The Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center commandant, Col. Phillip Deppert, is taking his troops for a run on Wednesday Feb. 17 at 3 p.m., together with ROTC members of both Monterey and Seaside High Schools. Also running will be the Institute's cherished mascot, Pfc. Lingo.

The run will begin at Price Fitness Center at the top of the Presidio of Monterey, and snake down the hill a couple of miles to Soldier Field, where Deppert will give awards to several military service members and spend time chatting with some 100 ROTC cadets.

Further queries by the media may be directed to the Defense Language Institute Public Affairs Office, 831-242-6015.
